Match Striker Loses Auto

An auto registered to James Nigre, of 2921 Washington Street was burned Wednesday morning at 12:02 when he backed it from a driveway of a home he was visiting at 8381 Adams Avenue. The car, according to Nigre, got hung on a brick culvert on the far side of the street. To examine the damage to his car and the culvert, Nigre struck a match. The damage was only a ruptured gas tank . . . until the match lit.

Lemon Grove firemen responding to the call said the car, a 1940 Ford convertible, is a complete loss.

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The jam that has slowed up justice in El Cajon Municipal Court seemed near breaking this week, due to pressure exerted in the Homelands area by Judge Fenton Garfield.

The judge spoke in Lemon Grove last week, suggesting that the Homeland area be added to his district, that another judge be brought in and that additional facilities be provided for his court.

As a result, in the meeting of Supervisors Tuesday, the wheels for action started rolling, with mention that Lemon Grove residents were pushing the program. Supervisor Dave Bird said that he had been reading of Garfield's talk in the LEMON GROVE REVIEW and suggested that steps be taken to put the Homeland area into the El Cajon District.

T. M. Heggland, chief administrative officer for the county, said he was recommending funds for another court room for El Cajon in the 1958-59 budget. He also revealed that Judge Garfield has requested an additional judge from the State Judicial Council, with the judge to use the city council's chambers in the El Cajon City Hall.

In recent months, due to the increase in population, the El Cajon court's calendar has become the most crowded in the county. Cases cannot be set for trial earlier than August.

Judge Garfield has been asking steadily for help. For the first time, according to county government observers, there seems a likelihood that the El Cajon court will be expanded, with a judge added to the staff.

Dr. Maloney To Head 'Pat' Brown Campaign Here

Dr. Basil W. Maloney, 7610 Pacific Ave., has been appointed chairman of the Lemon Grove Edmund G. "Pat" Brown for Governor Committee, and Mrs. Winnard Davis, 1933 Massachusetts Ave., has been named vice chairman.

Announcement of the appointments was made this week by Burton I. Jones and Robert F. Driver, co-chairmen of Brown's gubernatorial campaign committee in this county. Dr. Maloney also was named to the Executive Committee for this area's campaign.

Other chairmanship assignments in the Heartland Area include the Heartland Committee of 100 for Brown to Donald Slichter, and the Foothills Lawyers Committee to Gilbert Harelson, both from La Mesa. Mrs. Russell Gardner is heading the La Mesa Committee for Brown for Governor. Robert S. Harness, La Mesa, is general chairman of the overall Heartland area.

The announcement also said that Mrs. E. E. Ham, Jim McAllister and Derek Casady, all of El Cajon, would serve on Brown's Executive Committee.

Location Chosen For Incorporation Headquarters

Headquarters for the chamber of commerce group sponsoring incorporation is being set up at the office of Jim Pearch, at 3442 Main Street and work on the campaign will be started this week.

Ernest Newton, president of the chamber said that the chamber had approximately $6,000 on hand of which George Scott, San Diego department store operator and member of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce board of directors gave $2,000.

Boundaries are being established by the San Diego Boundary Commission and these are expected to be the same as the Lemon Grove Local Fire District, with a few adjustments for squaring off the map.

The boundaries surround a population of 24,000 persons.

Chamber committees are presently selecting persons to head various committees on the incorporation team.

John Johnston, of Long Beach, who conducted a successful incorporation campaign in Bellflower and Lakewood is handling the local campaign.

The Dimmer View

BY MAX GOODWIN

If the current issue of LIFE magazine looks a little like the "flash" edition of the LEMON GROVE REVIEW, it's because some Lemon Grove people are pictured therein.

On page 129, a full page in color is the "brightly lighted facade of the Bowlero" which is on Mission Valley Freeway. Emerging from the doors of the building are localites Ken Conrad, the town's mortician, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Flannery, he being a local tire tycoon.

The National Labor Relations Board has ordered building trades unions to obey the law and cease illegal hiring practices.

According to the Pacific Coast New Features, employers and unions have been given until June 1 to drop the closed shop, which requires that only union members be employed, or face heavy monetary losses or contempt-of-court charges. The Service charges that violations of the anti-closed shop provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act have been winked at since its passage in 1947.

Such a change will be welcome to this pillar which recalls how, early last year, the union messed up the life of one Charley Skates, a big bear of a man who lived around the corner from the office of the REVIEW. Skates was a laborer, and a good steady one, his employer told me. He was also a good provider. He was married to the tallest woman I ever saw and they had five children all of (Continued on Page 5)

Have Gun: Takes Prize In Pet Parade

WESTWARD HO — Maybe it was the influence of television cowboy shows, plus a little ingenuity, that won the sweepstakes for Danny Arsenault, 2611 Sheri Lane, at the Lemon Grove Pet Parade.

Event was sponsored jointly by Boosters Club, Lemon Grove Jaycees and Food Basket Markets. 49 prizes plus free Hages Ice Cream and Laura Scudder Potato Chips contributed to the fun. A Drizzle of rain threatened the event. Above is Danny with his dog in western garb. Dog's sign reads "Have gun, will travel". Judges and part of the record crowd are in the background.

Kids and pets were strung out from Olive Street east to the junior high school playgrounds Saturday when the locally sponsored Pet Parade was held.

An estimated 1,200 youngsters and 400 pets took part and several hundred adults were on hand, too.

49 prizes were awarded to kids who had pets in several different categories . . . most of them answering to the description of "cute".

So many turned out for the parade that the officials had trouble getting the vast throng organized.

To pass the time more quickly while the judging was being conducted Hages Ice Cream and Laura Scudder potato chips were on hand with their products and none left without getting all he wanted.

The event was co-sponsored by the Lemon Grove Boosters Club, the Lemon Grove Jaycees, and Food Basket Markets.

Sweepstakes winner was 6 year old Danny Arsenault, of 2611 Sheri Lane whose Dachshund pup in western attire, complete with holsters, carried a sign reading "Have gun, will travel". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Arsenault. He won a Lionel train from C.P. Appliances.

Other winners included: Lor-rain Gurule, Linda Kresser, Sandra and Melissa Spisak, Susan Willisroft, Armond Ramirez, Edith Block, Paula Hollowell, Sharon Wylie, Jane DeRoth, Mark Lehuber. Also: Linda Wilson, Mary Marinella, Ree Taylor, Bill Davis, Danny Ford, Danny Laub, John Litchfield.

Also: Natalie Block, Kristen Wilkenson, Terry Burns, David Thomas, Nancy Menard, Muriel Burton, Marsi Castle, Jimmy Smith and Sharon and Craig Stewart.

Prizes and trophies were awarded to all winners. Prizes came from Tomers Toyland, Sprouse Reltz, Cornets, Petite Shop, Williams Department Store, Calder's, Children's Bootery, Mary Monroe, Mel's Root Beer, Lemon Grove Department Store, C.P.

Woman Injured In Auto Mishap

Sheriff's deputies reported that a Lemon Grove woman was either pushed or fell from a vehicle on Massachusetts Avenue Friday at 11 p.m.

The woman, Mrs. Esther May Marks, of 7006 Central Avenue, was taken to Grossmont Hospital where she was treated for cuts and bruises. She said her husband pushed her from the vehicle during an argument.

Her husband, John Marks, Jr., 34, same address, told the sheriff's department that she jumped from the car during an argument. He said they had visited several bars prior to the incident.

Pancakes Net $700 For Kiwanis Youth Projects

The Kiwanis Pancake Dinner Committee were eaten out of "a house and home" and a man walked away with the Ladies' Pancake Flipping Contest and approximately $700 was raked up for the local Kiwanis Youth projects at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper Friday at the junior high school cafeteria.

Nearly fifty Kiwanis and their Kiwanianesses, cooked, poured and served one of the biggest turn-outs ever seen at a local service club shindig.

Jack Durham, food chairman, said that guests were served their choice of food, and as much as they wished, almost up to closing time. The kitchen ran short of sausage but the bacon was plentiful, he said. Fred Dixon, assistant chief of the fire department stopped in early and was pressed into four hours service flipping hotcakes over a hot grill.

Seven Kiwanis chefs flipped an estimated 5,000 pancakes starting at 4 o'clock. They wearily turned to the chore of cleaning up the

Boy Drowns In Fish Pool

A three-and-one-half year old boy was drowned Tuesday at noon when he fell into a fish pool at his foster home at 1534 Skyline Drive.

The boy, Richard (Ricky) Smootz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smootz, 1702 E St., S.D., failed to respond after Lemon Grove firemen, under Captain Harry Alexander applied the resuscitator for more than 45 minutes. Dr. Si Brumbaugh also responded to the call and pronounced the youngster dead.

The lad had lived at the residence of Mrs. Enola Williams, 53, at the Skyline address for two weeks.

Firemen Tubbs and Griggs did the resuscitator work.

Mrs. Williams said Ricky had been helping her hang clothes in the yard just before she entered the house. She said her mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Jackman, 82, looked out the rear window and said, "Isn't that the little boy out there in the pool?" Mrs. Williams summoned neighbors and the fire department.

The boy had been placed in the foster home under the Welfare Department's foster care program because the boy's father who is partially blind, and his mother, 42, were unable to support him. Smootz said he had been unemployed for more than a year.

Mrs. Williams' husband, Irvin, a city bus driver, said that the pool had been partially drained to make it less dangerous to children. The pool is approximately 20 feet in circumference and four feet deep. It had been drained to one-foot but recent rains had increased the depth to two feet according to Deputy Coroner McKisic.

Mrs. Williams was in a state of shock after the drowning and was placed under the care of a doctor. Her husband said she suffered from a heart condition.

"I can't understand how it happened," Smootz said after learning of the drowning. "Ricky was taught to be careful and was

Go! Go! Go! For Little League Over Property Owners' Protests

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Little League baseball in Lemon Grove now has the green light for the 1958 season, with the withdrawal last week of protests against the location of a new field and Supervisors' approval on Tuesday of a lease for the same field.

Announcement of the end to opposition to a field in Monterey Heights Park of the end to opposition to a field in Monterey Heights Park was made Friday before the Planning Commission by Dr. L. L. Boots, owner of adjacent property. The commission then promptly approved issuance of a special permit to the league to play in the park.

Boots explained that he had tried to enlist the support of neighbors in fighting the field, but failed. "I stand here alone before this court," he told commissioners. "People in the neighborhood who have children want the field. The others don't want to fight their neighbors."

Motioning to a man in the audience, Boots said, "Then I met this charming president of the Little League. I work on the basis, if you can't fight them, join them, so I withdraw my opposition. But I ask your mercy."

Boots explained that his opposition was based on the location of facilities to be put in the park. "I don't think people dislike me," he said. "Maybe some haven't paid their dentist bills, but they've left the area. But if somebody said, 'What can we do to get that bald headed old dentist?' Well, everything in that plan hurts me."

A revised plan, prepared by the planning department, was presented, with the facilities further from private land in the frightened of water. He must have been playing with the fish with a stick and fallen in."

Smootz said he and his wife had agreed to place the child in a foster home in February. He said he has 30 per cent vision and has been unable to find work since he was forced to take a leave of absence from the California State Industries San Diego Blind Center at 1344 F St. more than a year ago.

He and his wife receive $163 a month on blind aid and relief payments, he said.

time the season starts in late April. The site for the field has to be bulldozed, being raised in some places and cut down in others. Six teams will use the field.

Supervisors plan to spend $6,000 for toilets and other facilities at the field in time for play next year. In addition, Nichols street will be relocated to provide a parking area.

Tighter Laws On With-holding Tax Infractions

A new law provides criminal penalties in certain cases in which employers fail to pay promptly to the Government amounts which they are required to withhold from the salaries and wages of their employees on income and social security taxes. The new law makes it a criminal offense for any employer, who is delinquent in paying these amounts withheld from employees after notice has been served upon him, to fail to deposit these taxes within two banking days after their collection in a trust for the United States. Noncompliance can result in penalties of both fine and imprisonment. The new law also applies to the taxes on transportation, communications, safe deposit boxes, admissions and club dues which are required to be collected by various individuals and firms at the time the charges for these facilities and services are paid.

process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense."

The responsible authorities, the county supervisors, in our area and throughout the United States should read and re-read this sixth amendment to the Constitution of our country. Too often these men are elected to office by promises that they will protect us from treacherous ideas and forces abroad. These men are the first shout out that we must protect "the American Way of Life," yet they are contributing to the destruction of the Constitution of the United States by their failure to provide the necessary courtrooms and judges demanded by our increased population.

The morale of our judges and law enforcement officers suffers extensively as a result, and known criminals run loose on the streets of our communities. Justice has become a farce. Who is the real criminal in these cases?

I have just come from a courtroom where my little eleven-year-old daughter was a witness against a man found to be guilty of behavior which would indicate that he was a sex-psycopath. There were other children also involved besides my daughter. The offenses were committed over six months ago! During this six months this man has been free in the community "on bail" pending his trial. There has been no justice to the defendant nor the public in this as in all of these cases of delay.

The convicted man in this case should have been receiving institutional medical care during this six months, but the institutions cannot accept him until the court makes a recommendation. The court calendar was filled for months ahead at the time of the offense, and many or most of the pending cases were just as serious as this particular case in which my daughter was involved. Who can know what goes on in the mind of a child while she is awaiting the time when the government will demand that she appear in a courtroom as a witness against a fellow human! The waiting could easily be psychologically more damaging than the offense itself.

In this particular case, the agony of the parents of the offender, (who may be guilty through no fault of his own making) was prolonged for all of these months; this, with the constant fear they must have endured that their son would become further and perhaps worse involved in other offenses before he was given care and treatment.

Th anguish of the offender! the fright and anger of the exposed public! these are conditions to be found in an inadequate or decadent society, and should certainly not be necessary in the wealthiest, most enlightened nation in all the world's history.

There was no speedy trial—and the witnesses, for and against, after six months or a year may not even be alive. This is unconstitutional and must be remedied immediately if these pretenders of concern for "the American Way of Life" hope to have any of that way of life left to protect, trons as corruption. We must Dereliction of responsibility by public officials is just as disas have more courts and more judges, now; there is no more time for apologizing or rationalizing.

"TAKE UP THE CROSS"

The followers of Jesus "take up the cross." The cross is an instrument of death. To live the cross-life is to be dead to the beckonings of that which is contrary to the will of God and to be alive to that which is the will of God. Jesus took up His cross in mortal combat against evil. When we take our cross, we begin to walk in the footsteps of Jesus. This brings us too into a life-long struggle against evil. This is not the easy road, but it is the road this finally leads to glory.

'Education Before Sports Career' Warns Diamond Star

Bob Kerrigan, former star pitcher for the Padres was speaker Monday at the Lemon Rotary Club. He was pennant winning pitcher for the San Diego team in 1954.

Kerrigan said that the circumstances are few where he would recommend professional baseball as a career. The same amount of time applied to a college education pays a much greater dividend, he said. Rolla Hamilton was program chairman. Harold Secor presides.

Tax Lists Scheduled For County Newspapers

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Newspapers in incorporated areas in San Diego are going to share the advertising of delinquent tax lists with the City of San Diego newspapers. Delinquent tax lists for areas not incorporated such as Lemon Grove and Spring Valley will still go to the San Diego newspapers. This was decided by Supervisors Tuesday.

Newspapers in cities will share a $24,000 advertising plum. The first list has to be published on or before June 8, according to Tax Collector Wilbur W. Easton, who asked Supervisors to make the change.

The decision to split the advertising, long sought by Supervisors and newspapers, resulted from successful experiences in other counties. Easton said the new program would probably result in some savings, as lists are to be printed twice hereafter instead of three times. In addition, he said, the rates charged by the out of City of San Diego newspapers would probably be lower than charged before.

Delinquency To Be Topic

The problems of juvenile and adult delinquency will be discussed Saturday beginning at 2:30 p.m. at State College when Dr. Gerald P. Whitman of Washington D.C., Consultant of Community Services of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare Juvenile Delinquency Service speaks.

There will be an evening session in the Music Building Auditorium from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. These meetings are planned to improve local understanding and service.

One day he paid me a visit to announce that the union had ordered his employer to instruct Skates to join the laborer's union. Skates, a trusting soul, seemed a little pleased that he had been selected for union membership so he had held back a little grocery money and was on his way down to sign up.

When he signed he promptly found he was without a job. Although he had served his former employer well for five years, and his employer wanted him, the union said he would have to wait his turn, among some 50 other union laborers sitting around the hall, likewise waiting a call. The union told him the other guys had more seniority. Skates waited for days for the call that never came to him. Skates was unemployed. Period.

He became disconsolate. Although his former employer told me he put in a request with the union for Skates, they sent him other laborers instead. Skates couldn't understand it. Neither could I.

I contacted Stanley Gue, the California Labor Commissioner's deputy in San Diego. I don't know whether Gue is a powerful man but he certainly spoke like one.

He advised me I could do well to stay out of such matter. He also informed me that jobs do not belong to the employer nor to the employee. "They belong to the unions," he said.

Skates, meanwhile, became more dejected and took to wine-drinking and wife beating and fell finally in the toils of the law. They shipped the family back east to a place they lived years before. I haven't heard of them since.

When Skates' earthly labors are through he'll probably be doing a little ditching around the Pearly Gates for St. Peter in the non-union Land of Tomorrow.

Skates, being a simple man, would never think of using the flat end of his shovel to whap a kneeling man across the posterior... even if that man is Stanley Gue... unless this item gets the idea across to him.

I've often wondered at what specific point the microorganism of politics becomes so powerful in the bloodstream that an otherwise normal human decides to run for public office.

I figured I'd get a pretty straight answer from Howard Muhleman, an attorney, who is also the former prosecuting attorney for the City of San Diego (1952-54).

"Why did you toss your hat in the ring for Municipal Court Judge Luther Hussey's chair at the bench?" I asked.

His reason, I suppose, is more valid than some I've heard. Said Muhleman, "When I read a newspaper interview report last month where Judge Hussey is quoted on his effort in setting up the new traffic court I said to myself Muhleman, God made the world in seven days, and on the eighth day he made the San Diego Traffic Court for Judge Hussey!... and it was at that moment I felt impelled to run," he said.

Another 'Better Living' Program Scheduled Tuesday

The third in the series of "Better Living... Automatically" programs titled "Easter Parade of Foods," being presented by the Home Economics Department, San Diego Gas and Electric Company will be held Tuesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the utility's Eastern District Office, 104 North Johnson Street, El Cajon. Co-sponsor is Appliance Center 524 East Main Street, El Cajon. A complete appetizing Easter Dinner will be prepared by Marie Bull, home economist. Also there will be some handy suggestions on how to make the most of left-overs. The usual door prize will be given and refreshments will be served.

The lion will be featured in the Fiesta de Pacifico's annual Pageant Parade on Labor Day. The Fiesta del Pacifico is using this picture to publicize the Fiesta throughout the country.

Some of the events planned for the Fiesta are: a Fiesta Promenade in the downtown area August 29; a coronation ball following opening ceremonies in Balboa Park; appearance of a Mormon choir of Southern California; street dances downtown, North Park and Pacific Beach; state picnics; art shows; open house on Naval vessels; Mayors' Days from August 29 through September 1; Ambassador Days September 5, 6, and 7, and 10 performances of the musical "The California Story." County Clerk's Office Netted $200,000 Last Year

The Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday heard Robert "Bud" James, San Diego County Clerk and Superior Court Administrator discuss the recent salary raises of 8 county officials (the being of the 8) and county welfare collections as handled by the Clerk's office.

James pointed out that the grand jury had recommended salary increases after a study of similar jobs in other counties and found that nearly all counties paid higher wages for similar jobs. He said that they also took into consideration that the law denies further increases for six years.

James said the S.D. County Clerk's office nets the county $200,000 every year over and above the cost of operation, including telephone and lights. "Few county clerks' offices operate at a profit," James said.

James said that his office had become the central point through which most welfare collection activities were co-ordinated and put into order.

Where persons are required to contribute either for old age recipients or for children, the records and enforcement usually falls in the Clerk's office, James said.

One innovation is a system for the immediate withdrawal of aid in the amount of the financial responsibility of the family member when necessary. This makes the contributor more directly responsible to the recipient. "This re-establishes a link between the family members in many cases," James said.

He said his department also handles all payroll and budget matters for the superior courts.

Speaker this week will be Carlyle Reed, assistant to the editor of the Union-Tribune Publishing Company.

The club meets on Friday at Michael's at 12 noon. Bill Parker of the Telephone Company presides.

Spring

THE SEASON OF "NEW THINGS"

Here Comes Spring . . .

A happy season when all thoughts turn lightly to new things that are fresh and crisp. Things that lend sparkle to the months ahead.

This is the season when wardrobes will be refurbished and replaced. The season for choosing the needed accessories for growing families.

Local merchants have joined forces in offering one of the largest selections of Spring and Easter merchandise in the history of Lemon Grove.

Browse through the offerings in the Spring Section of this newspaper. You'll find a variety of merchandise chosen expressly for local consumption.

Styles were never brighter nor more plentiful. Shop these stores this week.

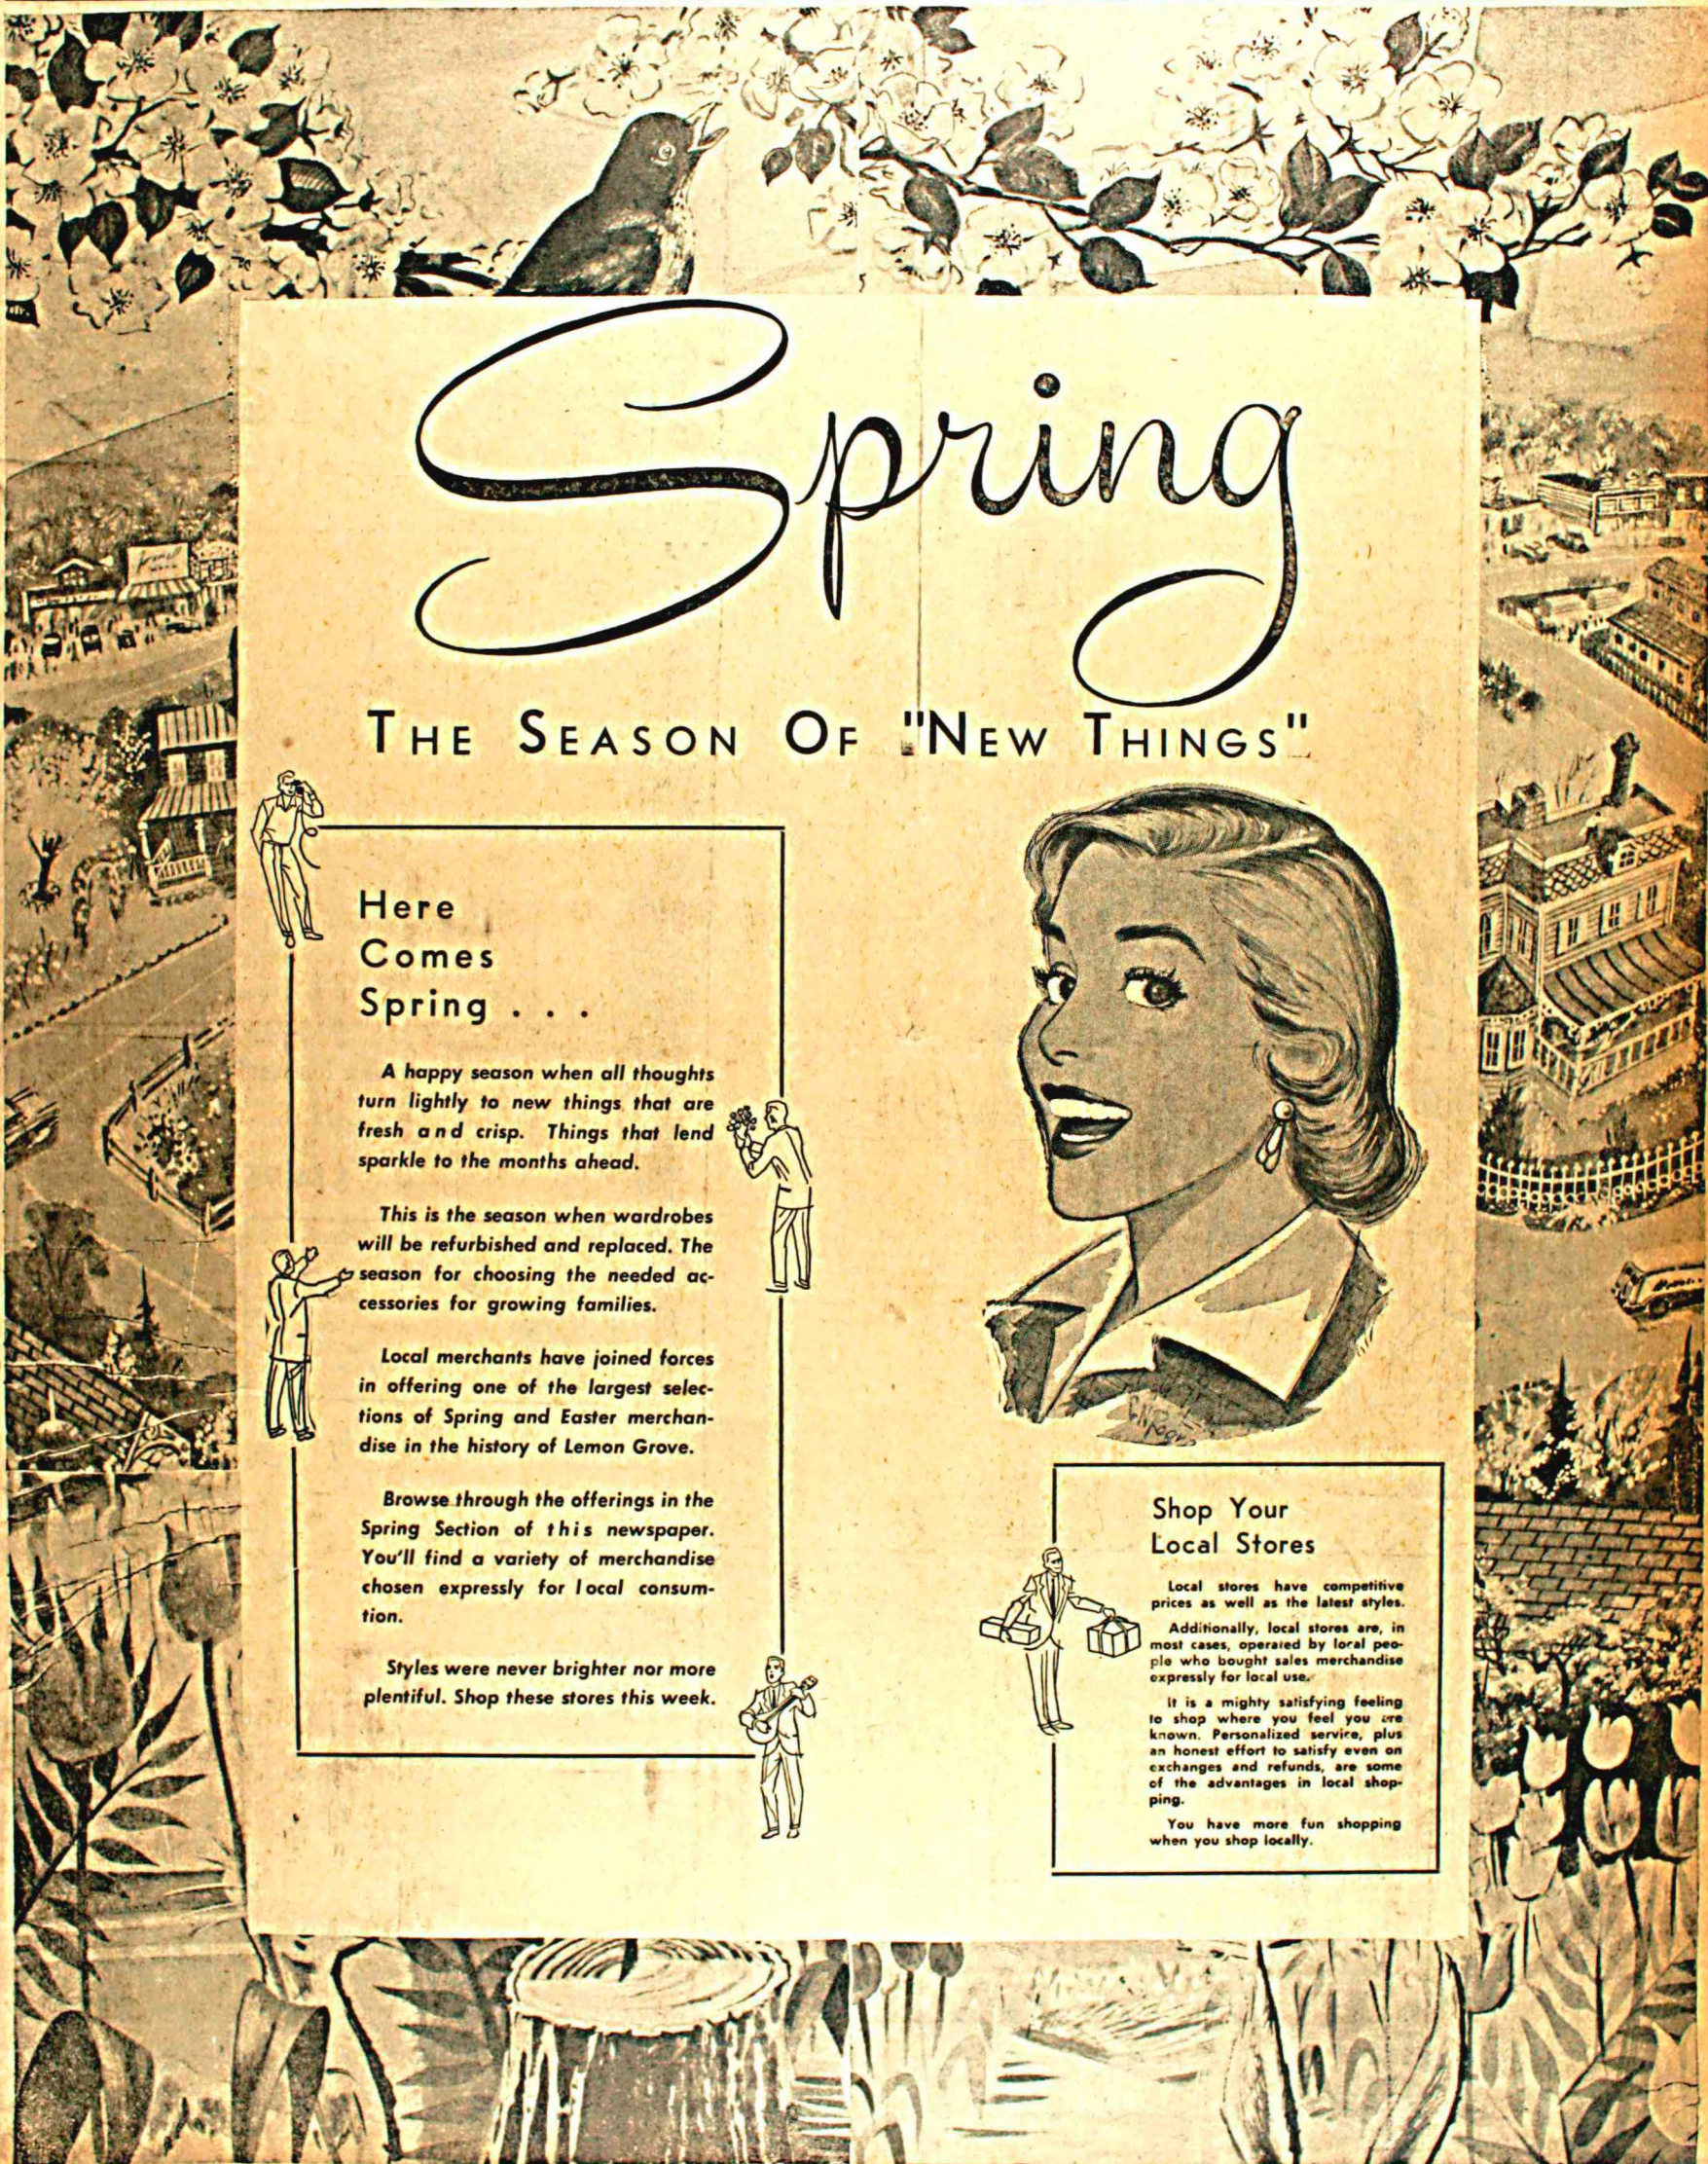

Shop Your Local Stores

Local stores have competitive prices as well as the latest styles.

Additionally, local stores are, in most cases, operated by local people who bought sales merchandise expressly for local use.

It is a mighty satisfying feeling to shop where you feel you are known. Personalized service, plus an honest effort to satisfy even on exchanges and refunds, are some of the advantages in local shopping.

You have more fun shopping when you shop locally.

The new Spring '58 formals come in the lightest weight wool-worsted known to man to insure a pleasurable evening no matter how warm the theatre. The cut-away shawl collar dinner jacket—in a cool luxurious tropical all-wool fabric—features angled pockets piped with satin, as well as a plain back instead of side or back vents. Slim men will prefer a tuxedo with pleatless tropical all wool trousers! The more portly males find pleated pants more flattering. In either case, make the outfit midnight blue or jet black for a truly formal night at the theatre.

Area Red Cross Undergoes Reorganization

The La Mesa Red Cross Branch held its reorganizational meeting March 12 in the Little Theater Building in La Mesa. The branch was reorganized to include La Mesa, Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. Edwin C. Kelton.

Board members are: Miles Nagel, Lucius Lawton, Le Roy Bailey, Mrs. Paul Fellows. Committee chairmen are: Home Service, Mrs. Laura Banghart; Motor Corps, Mrs. Ruth Clausen; Disaster, Lucius Lawton. The next meeting will be held the first Thursday morning of the month in the La Mesa City Hall.

S.D. AIRFIELD NAMED 'OFFICIAL' BY MEXICO

Alberto Salinas Carranza, Director General of Civil Aeronautics for Mexico, authorized the new official designation, after a request by Port Director John Bate.

Previously six airports along the boarder had been specified as official airports of entry and departure, Lindberg Field had not been included.

Stop For Flashing Lights On School Bus, Warns CHP

The California Highway Patrol warns: Do not pass a school bus stopped on a rural highway with red lights flashing. "The flashing red lights indicate the bus is about to cross the road there," stated Captain R. Gautsche of the San Diego area office. Motorists approaching from either direction are required to stop until the lights are turned off before proceeding.

An exception is when the school bus is stopped on the opposite portion of a divided highway. If there are no flashing lights, it is smart to slow down and be prepared for any emergency. Children do the unexpected. Extra caution must be used when driving in or near school zones, or when children are near the street or highway.

☆ You can be popular without making a fool of yourself.

"SUBSTANCE"

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE TOPIC

The thoughts and things of God as true substance, and the nature of matter as insubstantial are discussed in the Lesson Sermon on "Substance" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday. The Golden Text from Psalms (73:26) declares, "My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever."

A portion of the sermon is taken from the Book of Isaiah where the prophet says, "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts ... For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts" (55:7-9).

AAUW To Help Publicize School Board Election

La Mesa's American Association of University Women authorized activities of their Education Committee recently in connection with forthcoming school board elections in the Grossmont Union High School and La Mesa-Spring Valley Elementary School Districts. Two vacancies are to be filled on each of the five member boards on May 20.

"We want voters in these school districts to be aware of the election and to be registered so they can vote," said Mrs. Bert Wilkas, Education Committee chairman. "We also hope to encourage civic-minded citizens, interested in children and in schools, who have already filed or are planning to do so for the two boards."

To file for school board, a person must be a registered voter living in the district he wishes to serve. He must file his petition for candidacy any time up to 30 days before the election with the county superintendent of schools. Deadline for this filing is April 18. Three to ten people may petition for a person's candidacy.

Voters must be registered 54 days before election, and this deadline is March 22. Registration can be made at the city halls in La Mesa and El Cajon. Residents of the county may call the San Diego County Registrar of Voters to find out where to register. Registered voters will receive notice of this election from the Registrar of Voters.

Members of the Grossmont Union High School Board of Trustees meet once each month; La Mesa-Spring Valley members meet twice each month. They are not paid for their services. Terms on both boards are for three years, starting July 1.

The AAUW Education Committee has prepared a list of ten questions which a voter or a person considering candidacy for a school board might use in making up his mind:

1. Does the candidate believe that public education is basic in American life?
2. Has the candidate a deep and sincere interest in the public schools, the community, and every child?
3. Does the candidate have high standards of personal honesty, integrity, and conduct?
4. Is it established that the candidate is not seeking the position for personal prestige or political gain?
5. Is the candidate able and willing to think independently and objectively about a problem?
6. Does the candidate realize that the profits of education are measured in terms of children—not in dollars and cents—but appreciate the need of wise spending of taxpayer's dollars?
7. Has the candidate a record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole, rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area?
8. Will the candidate work to develop unity among the members of the Board, contributing to the harmonious development of the program?
9. Can and will the candidate give the necessary time to this important position?
10. Does the candidate have the ability to determine basic policies and then to delegate authority to the professional personnel?

SUNDAY AT THE ZOO becomes a real treat if a lad's dressed correctly for the occasion. Warm weather calls for a striped lightweight wool sports jacket. Rugged-looking in appearance (yet comfortable for spring's balmy days) is the gray and white herringbone stripe with a subtle overstripe. The cut of the all-wool jacket, by Airansun, is definitely "ivy," the style lads insist is right. Partner to the jacket, gray, all-wool, summer weight flannel slacks that hold their press and stay cool.

CHAIN LETTERS FOR U. S. BONDS ILLEGAL

The Department of Justice is investigating chain letter schemes involving the use of United States Saving Bonds. Chain letters are illegal. These letters have brought about losses to most participants. Those who acquire bonds on a "get-rich-quick" and easy schemes are likely to cash them in soon and so disrupt the purpose of the Savings Bonds program and the good it does for the individual and the nation.

ED KOTERBA Reports from Washington

Air of Antagonism

Correspondents attending the press conference of John Foster Dulles on March 4 detected more antagonism by the Secretary of State toward Russia than in many months in the past.

Mr. Dulles stated bluntly that the United States cannot deal with the Russians on a high-level "peace" conference because, he said, the Reds aim to perpetrate a hoax on the world by making a propaganda spectacle of such a meeting.

Dulles emphasized the word, "hoax," and added the word, "fraud," for good measure, in describing the Reds' intentions for a summit conference.

The following day, President Eisenhower carefully soft-pedaled this outburst of antagonism. At his press conference, Mr. Eisenhower replied that he read Dulles' statement and did not, indeed, see anything about "hoax or fraud."

The phrase was banner-lined in Washington's papers and the words were carried plainly in Dulles' official text.

Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, meanwhile, chided Mr. Eisenhower on the floor of the Senate . . . He said Mr. Eisenhower should read the newspapers more carefully . . .

Simpson Sinking

A politician's lot . . . Several weeks ago, Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania was riding high, being considered as candidate for U. S. Senate or governor on the Pennsylvania GOP ticket. But today, from reports in his district, Simpson may have a tough time even gaining re-election as congressman this fall.

The thing that hurt him was his straight-faced statement that, as head of the Republican congressional campaign committee, he would have readily accepted the "tainted" $100,000 Texas $100-a-plate oil money for Republican campaign purposes.

DISABILITY BILL

Democrats were caught off guard by the surprise revelation that President Eisenhower effected an informal agreement with Vice President Nixon to take over the presidency in case Mr. Eisenhower is again incapacitated.

It was the Democrats who were sitting on the formal "disability" bill in Congress. It was significant to note that the moment the Nixon-Eisenhower agreement was revealed, Democrats brought the congressional bill out of committee. It now stands a good chance of passing this session.

ADLAI GAINING

As reported several times in this column, the presidential stock of Adlai Stevenson seems to be keeping rising.

The two-time loser made a good impression in the Capital in his latest appearance in Washington. There are plenty of political wagers here who will take a bet that Stevenson will run — and will defeat the apparent Republican candidate, Richard Nixon, in 1960.

FEUD WIDENS

The Eisenhower-Truman bitterness grew deeper during the former President's recent visit to Washington.

Mr. Eisenhower's friends were chagrined that the Chief Executive refused to see the former President face to face even though both appeared on the same program.

On the other hand, those friendly to both were upset by the SYNTHETIC horsehair, is in a soft outer bag. Double handles, top zipper opening, side drape and a semi-oval border detail. Souffle in weight, a real pleasure to carry for day or evening wear. Colors . . . White, Black, Navy, Red Beige, Pink, Blue, Toast, Yellow.

Truman attack on Mr. Eisenhower which they described as "vicious and almost childish."

It is safe to conclude that Harry Truman will never fulfill his ambition to get an invitation to visit his old haunt, the White House, as long as Dwight Eisenhower is in office.

BURDICK APPEALS

Rep. Usher Burdick of North Dakota is appealing to constituents who are opposed to "doctor" food — the adding of "poison" for food coloring, etc. — to write their protest to: Chairman Rules House Office Building, Washington 25, D.C.

Burdick is seeking support for his bill, No. 212, which would outlaw additives in food.

Your reporter's mother, Mrs. Grace T. Platt, of 320 Cardiff Street became 84 years young recently. She is one of the oldest living graduates of New Britain State Teachers College, Conn., and was in her younger days a fine landscape painter in water colors. Happy Birthday, Mother.

LOMITA VILLAGE

The newly built First Baptist Church of Encanto located at 7166 Jamacha Road has seen a real increase in Sunday School and Church attendance since the completion of the building last November. It is hoped that as the summer draws on with the completion of the housing tracts located near the Church, the opportunity for ministering to the community will increase. The month of March will find the Church busy in an Every Member Canvass and a Visitation Evangelism Program which will be topped with Sunday School Rally Day on March 23rd. Plans are also in the making for Vacation Bible School which will be held in July.

LOMITA VILLAGE

First Baptist Church of Encanto extends a warm welcome to the people in the area to come and worship God with them. With the special days of Palm Sunday and Easter coming soon, an invitation is given to attend this church to worship. The services are Sunday School 9:30 a.m., Morning Worship 10:55 a.m., Baptist Youth Fellowship 6:30 p.m., Evening Worship 7:30 p.m., Bible Study and Prayer Meeting is on Wednesday evening at 7:30. The book of First Corinthians is being studied on Wednesday evening.

Folks, meet some mighty nice Lomita Villagers, Mr. and Mrs. George Stalker of 559 Cardiff Street. Mr. Stalker telephoned approves of our remarks on planting trees. "I'd like you to know," he said, "I've planted a silk oak, a hard maple, several avocados..." We couldn't take down the whole inventory. Mrs. Stalker is a real old time gospel singer, having sung for years with Billy Sunday and Homer Rodeheaver. She has also sung in light opera. It was her fondest dream to popularize opera sung in English.

We are wondering if some of those troubled souls, who, during the wee sma' hours of the night feel compelled to dial the prayer recorded by the San Diego Council of Churches over on Point Loma, might not sometimes be startled by the brevity of the pious injunction they sometimes receive. The other day at a college alumnae tea we met a charming lady, Mrs. V. Lee Gannon, who lives on Point Loma. The Gannon's telephone number is often mistaken for that of Dial-A-Prayer. Many a night their telephone jangles shrilly, and Mr. Gannon, a retired British army Lomita housewives, are there any of you who would be willing to become Scout leaders? Experience is not necessary. The Council will train you. The situation here in Lomita Village has become critical. Girl Scout Troops in the Village have actually been recently disbanded for lack of leaders.

Mrs. Cecil Henderson of 303 Henderson Avenue was tendered a farewell coffee party recently by the mothers of her Brownie Girl Scout Troop at the home of Mrs. Eita Jensen at 8266 Sarr Vicente Street. The Brownie mothers presented Mrs. Henderson with a lovely sweater. The Hendersons have just left for Denver, Colorado, where they will reside. Many friends in Lomita Village will miss them, and good wishes follow them.

LOMITA VILLAGE NOTES

by Edna Rice — HO 4-6832

Some count the grey whales on their Spring migratory journey south. Some wait for the swallows of Capistrano to return from their mysterious winter playground, wherever it is. But your reporter watches for the return of the bluebirds. At this writing, so far the bluebirds have not put in an appearance. Last year, they came in whole flocks. It was the first time we had seen bluebirds other than singly. They seem like harbingers of hope and happiness. Year by year, Lomita Village is attracting more birds. Now that the cotoneasters, pyracantha, and pepper trees have been stripped of their berries, birds of every description swoop down on the white berries of the night-blooming jasmine (which awakens nostalgic memories of the old-fashioned snowberries of New England). During the recent rains, the air was filled with the twittering and chirping of hundreds of birds, seeking a shelter from the torrential downpour. In fact, we had quite a serenade between the birds chirping for shelter and the patio tree frogs croaking gleefully in the rain. Crumbs, by the way, still look mighty good to our hungry feathered friends. And those white-berried jasmine bushes we just mentioned self-sow very readily. Don't throw away the seedlings. Do share them with your neighbors and help beautify Lomita Village.

Shearer Says Vets Wants Subversives Constrained

Speaking before the La Mesa Republican precinct workers Wednesday at the home of Cmdr. and Mrs. C. E. Mosier, 8998 Alpine, La Mesa, William K. "Bill" Shearer, candidate for State Assemblyman in the 77th district pledged support for legislation beneficial to veterans. He said "Our veterans organizations have always led the fight for control of subversives, including loyalty oath legislation." Shearer is a veteran, his opponent, Sheridan Hegland is not.

Shearer mentioned that Hegland contradicted himself, when Hegland spoke at the La Mesa Catholic Women's Club on May 1, 1952, he came out against the loyalty oath for teachers at the University of California. But in an address before the same club, in the same room of the same building but on October 21, 1952, Hegland came out for the loyalty oath. Shearer said "The Bible has a verse which describes Hegland, it is James 1:8 'A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.'"

Shearer, an active member of the American Legion, served as delegate to the department convention, and as a board member of La Mesa Post 282.

Nominating Committee Picked For Valley Lionesses

The appointment of a nominating committee was the main order of business for the Spring Valley Lionesses, when that group met at Singing Hills Country Club recently.

Following the meeting, slides of Scotland, England and France were shown and narrated by Mrs. Margaret McSparron, who made a visit to Scotland after being away from there for 32 years. Another guest was Mrs. Margaret Irons, who has been here from Scotland just a few weeks. Three other visitors to the Club were Mrs. Rose Hiedenrich of Azusa, sister of Mrs. Dorothy Benson, Mrs. Alita Shiels (of S and M Sporting Goods) and Mrs. Avala Gurdy.

Mrs. Dorothy Benson, publicity chairman for the Lionesses said that their recent "Wearin' of the Green" benefit dance at Singing Hills was a big success, with quite a crowd attending. Music was supplied by Merle Carlson and his orchestra; there were special numbers by the Shamrocks.

Quartet, and Dr. Fred Sherman, S.V. veterinarian acted as emcee. The club wishes to thank the El Cajon Valley Florists and the Stone's Gift Shop of La Mesa, for the door prizes.

High School Boys May Get NAR Training

Local high school boys between the ages of 17 to 18½ have an opportunity to take 85 days of training and earn $235 plus food clothing with the Naval Air Reserve program at the Naval Air Station Los Alamitos. This program begins on Saturday, June 21 and will be completed prior to the opening of school in September. Less than 40 openings are still available. Trainees can advance from airman recruit to airman after successful completion of training and will be given the opportunity to participate in the basic program the summer of 1959 and be advanced to Petty Officer third class in any specialty they may choose. Athletic events, swimming and trips to places of interest is planned. The group will also cruise aboard a ship with the fleet for two weeks.

MIGUEL FLASHES TO TOP IN SPORTS

Athletics at Mt. Miguel High School seem to be rousing the interest not only of the students, but of the parents as well. This was indicated during the winter by the large attendances at the recently formed wrestling matches, staged by the student grapplers, under the direction of Coach Ben Duea.

March 8 was a day of days for the local group, as seven qualified to attend the State Finals at Redondo Beach, near Los Angeles. Mt. Miguel brought home one championship in the 175 pound weight division, in the person of Jim Osborne, a senior who defeated the top grappler of Pacific High School at San Bernardino.

Mt. Miguel also boasted three runners-up: Larry Huton, a 165 pound junior; Herb Hulet, 145 pound junior; and Tsuneyo Kaneko, also a junior.

Three other wrestlers from Mt. Miguel who qualified but failed to place were: Jerry Pamp, 113 pound senior; Ray Kygar, 133 pound junior; and Vern Booth, 127 pound junior.

For the benefit of parents who are interested in having their sons participate in athletics at high school, but who shy away from wrestling because of the "danger", Coach Duea says the main object of high school wrestling is for one boy to put another on his back and all "dangerous" holds are barred.

TENNIS

Much enthusiasm is being shown in the tennis field at Mt. Miguel, also, according to the tennis coach William Carden. The team has been practicing hard all year and is ready to get started on some real matches.

'Mama' Draws Well At Mt. Miguel

Mount Miguel High School's first dramatic presentation "I Remember Mama" by John Van Druten, was well received by the students and parents who attended the two nights' performances March 7 and 8. According to a report from the school 450 persons attended. Many who heard about the success of the performances were sorry they missed out.

Mel Grant, principal of Mt. Miguel said there have been many favorable comments on the play and acting. Mrs. Billie Cremer, a resident of Lemon Grove and a former dramatic actress, said recently that she was quite elated at the timing, the technicalities and acting of the play. "It showed good directing," she added.

Mrs. Cremer said she saw the original play on Broadway, but the high school's presentation proved that the student actors and actresses could take parts

"far beyond their ages."

Actually everything about the play went smoothly . . . except one thing . . . the cat. But let's have Mrs. Jean Temp, who directed the play tell it in her own words:

"Cat troubles at Mount Miguel's 'I Remember Mama' productions gave us some indication of the problems of the 'Porgy and Bess' touring company must have had supplying itself with goats for Porgy, as the group traveled around the world. We didn't go anywhere, but went thru three cats in two nights."

"Probusis I, our first choice (to take the part of Aunt Elizabeth), was the most docile, cooperative and incidentally, most ugly-looking of the three Probusis. He met his Maker through the jaws of an uncooperative German Shepherd, shortly before the play was given."

"Cat No. II, a nameless, more active grey job, did not behave at home, and was booted out after Friday's performance. He could not be found on Saturday, so some kind 'neighbor down the block' supplied (cat No. 3) a large well-fed, colorful specimen for the Saturday performance."

"Cat No. III, unfortunately, did not accustom itself to public acclaim until the after-play party, and waltzed calmly out into the audience just before one of its three big scenes. Dagmar 'carried on'—with a bundle of rags—and the ushers collected the stray cat, much to everyone's amusement."

"Don't ever let it be said that cats aren't people! We know they are!"

As a reminder, here is the cast of Mt. Miguel's "I Remember Mama": Katrin, Mary McCray; Mama, Merry Whitehurst; Papa, Paul Mitchell; Dagmar, Kris Amundson; Aunt Elizabeth (cat) Probusis I; Christine, Mary Lou Bell; Mr. Hyde, Andy Kerr; Nels, Tom Frisque; Aunt Trina, Suzy De Groot; Aunt Sigrid, Kathy Nagle; Aunt Jenny, Janice Torgerson; Uncle Chris, David Gallagher; Woman, Donna Ray; Dr. Johnson, Joe Connolly; Mr. Thorkelson, Perry Tuve; Nurse, Celia Taylor; Scrubwoman, Brenda Preston; Arne, Bill Truex; Another nurse, Cathy Stubbs; Soda clerk, John Cornelius; Madeline, Judy Dunham; Dorothy, Valeria Mauman; Bell boy, Gary Monetta; and Miss Moorehead, Bette Long.

STATE INSURANCE INCOME RISES

The State Compensation Insurance Fund reports premiums written for 1957 totaled $47,365,047, a gain of 3.57 per cent over 1956. Compensation benefits to injured workmen and their dependents amounted to $26,194,234. Total assets as of December 31, 1957 were $90,487,917 up $3,512,287.

Copper Is 'In' This Year

The beauty of copper has intrigued every age — from the days of Cleopatra and Helen to the present. Now the warm charm of this metal has won it a high place in this season's costume jewelry design.

A lustrous collection of all-copper jewelry and a companion group that combines with colorful enamels in a variety of exquisite patterns, are enjoying great popularity as stunning touches to the new fashions.

Both collections have a definite accent on versatility. An enchanting selection of earrings, pins, necklaces and bracelets are available in all-copper and in enamels-and-copper. In addition, there are matching contour belts of shimmering copper.

For design inspiration, the makers have ranged far and wide, and the motifs reflect a universality that sweeps from Baghdad to the land of the Aztecs to the autumn patterns of our own country.

The designers apparently followed the cardinal principal that women like versatility in their accessories — items that complement more than one or two costumes — and the new collections have achieved this while retaining a remarkable degree of individuality. All of the enamel-and-copper pieces are available in several of the smartest fashion colors.

The copper belts are stunning beauties that do double duty as waist charmers for casual or dressy woollens. One of the smartest is a hobnail belt, patterned after ancient armor, that has an adjustable chain-type buckle for precise closure. Designed to be the center of attraction, this belt is ideal for the basic dress in your wardrobe or for use with sportswear.

The copper jewelry, by Renoir of California, and the enamels-and-copper collection, by Matisse, are featured at Morrison-Adams Jewelry.

Then I'll tell you about and give you some recipes for tasty dishes made from your Easter dinner leftovers. For instance, there'll be cheesy asparagus bake and peach and ham loaf, that your family will enjoy during following days. And these make-the-most-of-what-you've-got food ideas will come in handy all through the year.

I'll be looking forward to meeting with you next Tuesday. There'll be the usual door prizes and refreshments will be served.

Developer of E.S.P. Is Church Speaker

D. J. B. Rhine, director and founder of the Parapsychology Research Laboratory at Duke University, last week addressed an exceptionally enthusiastic overflow crowd at the First Unitarian Church, San Diego, under the auspices of the California Parapsychology Foundation, Inc. This was his first and only San Diego appearance. Dr. Rhine is probably the leading exponent in the world today in the field of extra-sensory perception (ESP). He is the author of a number of books on the subject, some of the best known being "New Frontiers of the Mind" and "New World of the Mind". His latest book, just off the press, is a text-book written in collaboration with J. G. Pratt and entitled "Parapsychology: Frontier Science of the Mind". Dr. Rhine has a most pleasing platform manner and a face that radiates warmth and kindness. His wife, Dr. Louisa Rhine, also a member of the Parapsychology staff at Duke, took a bow.

Dr. Rhine discussed in detail the ESP researches conducted at Duke University for a period of 30 years. The California Parapsychology Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit educational and research organization. It is the second largest in the country. Kay Sterner is the founder and director, and Reginald Boswell is the secretary-treasurer. The Board of Directors has created a Research Staff of qualified people including doctors, professors, and lawyers.

Campout Brings Excitement Via Rattlesnakes

Recently the Rattlesnake and Wolf patrols of Troop 47 went on an overnight campout near Pinto Mountain. They hiked into Mexico and picked up some specimens of sandstone, agate, lava and petrified wood. During the day the boys practiced measuring and tracking. Each built their own fireplace for their own meals.

There was some excitement Scoutmaster H. I. Skinner and Mr. Don Ross killed a sidewinder rattlesnake. Joe Parsons, patrol leader of the Wolf patrol earned part of his cooking merit badge requirement by cooking a very delicious stew. Boys present were: Timmy Johnson, John Skinner, Mike Hale, Donnie Ross, Ricky Pedigo, Joe Parsons, and Stephen Batzer. Billy Fuller was a guest on the hike.
